

World Languages Club

The World Language Club offers cultural experiences for students interested in expanding their knowledge of world languages and cultures. The Club attempts to bridge the cultural gap that often occurs between cultures, and to prepare students to work in an increasingly global, multi-cultural economy. Specifically, the Club provides student-directed activities centered on culture and language. For more information, contact Elizabeth Berry at eberry@ccsnh.edu.

Activities and Organizations

Students at NCC have been most enthusiastic in organizing their own activities guided by faculty advisors. Student activities are similar to those found at other Community Colleges and are based upon student interest. These may include baseball, community service, golf, outing club, skiing, gaming, and of course, student government, to name a few. If you are interested in starting a new club, please see Amy Vazifdar upstairs in the Wellness Center-Room 204-Student Life Office.
