

Examples of Some Auxiliary Aids

Visual Impairment

- ZoomText Magnifier/Reader software installed a needed classroom computer
- Speak to text software (see below)

Hearing Impairment

- FM System for individual use
- CART ASL Services
- Live ASL interpreter hired as needed
- ASL Apps (supplementary/back up resource)
- Otter.ai or other similar software for Live Notes/Captioning/Transcription

Resource for live ASL interpreters: NH Department of Education Directory of Translators/Interprets, The Language Bank, Northeast Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services, Inc.

 Require prior requests to ensure enough time to arranged needed service on date/time required

Speech to Text Software

- Google Speak
- Microsoft Word Dictate (Office 360 available free to students & employee)

Classroom Equipment

- Adapted mouse
- Specialize seating

Assistive Devices (limited availability)

- Digital Recorders
- Digital textbooks
- CCTV to enlarge text
- Portable scanner

This is not an exhaustive list and all approved aids are based on documented/determined need if reasonable and appropriate to the higher education environment.

Some auxiliary aids that are not considered accommodations in higher education includes, but is not limited to, individualized instruction, modifying curriculum, and personal care attendants.