Knowledge of these systems and how it inspect them is required to gain your State Inspectors license.

Course Description:

Honda automotive suspension, steering systems and wheel alignment procedures will be studied. This course will include the development of knowledge towards understanding the forces that affect vehicle control, suspension system design, wheel alignment angles and vehicle stability systems. Students will be trained in four wheel alignment procedures, suspension system repairs and steering system diagnosis and repair.

Discuss the causes of wheel vibration and procedures for repair using Roadforce and Force Matching
Identifying electronic suspension system components and operation
Identifying electronic suspension system components and operation

Essential Questions:

What is the function of the steering and suspension system?

What are the possible outcomes if these systems are not serviced properly?

Would you want to be reasonable for these outcomes?

What steps are you going to take to make sure your job is done properly?

Required Textbook(s):

Course Expectations:

We understand that sometimes “life happens” and you cannot get to class on time or at all but, all students are expected to attend each class for the full amount of time scheduled. It is an important part of your education and we want you to be successful.

All lectures and labs begin on the hour.

Tardiness: All students will receive 2 “late entrances” to class. On the third time that student will not be allowed into class and will receive a zero for that class. This will result in an absence and be counted towards the attendance policy for the AF grade.

Absences: Any student that will miss a class should notify the instructor by phone or email prior to the beginning of the class. All absences will result in accrued time towards the AF policy. Students are responsible for any make-up work, missed quizzes and exams due to absence. It is the instructor’s discretion to allow make-up work, take a quiz or exam.

In this section, you must include your late work policy AND your make up policy unless your department has specific requirements posted below. You should also list other expectations that will help students succeed in your course and allow your classroom to function smoothly.

- This class uses mostly live work for the lab. These jobs are booked, on average, 2 weeks out. If you cannot make a lab, it is important you let me know so I can schedule accordingly.
- As a rule, there is no make-up work. If you are not going to make a class be sure, your homework assignment has been completed. Most assignments will be on Canvas. If it is a paper assignment, include it in the email stating you are going to be absent and you will receive full credit. Quizzes can be made up only if there was an email notifying the instructor of the absence. This must be made up prior to the next meeting of the class. It is the student's responsibility to do this.
- Most homework assignments will be end of chapter questions and will be on Canvas. Quizzes will be based on those homework assignments and given in class on paper.
- All powerpoint/class presentations on Canvas for you to review
- Should you have any question or concern you can email me. I normally will return an email within 48 hours.

Grading:

Include a grade weight breakdown showing the specific components of the student's final grade. For example:

- 10% -- Homework from text book
- 10% -- Quizzes
- 20% -- Daily lab eval/Task sheets, please see the Daily Lab Evaluation sheet
- 20% -- Mid-term Exam
- 20% -- Final Exam
- 20% -- Lab Final Exam

Grades will be assigned according to the department scale:

Point/letter grade equivalents:

- 100-94: A
- 93-90: A-
- 89-87: B+

Course Expectations:

Attendance:

Class attendance is considered essential to academic success of students. Since there are constant learning opportunities between faculty members and students, and between students and other students within the classroom or lab, it is expected that students will attend each meeting of each course in which they are enrolled. In addition, the lesson disruptions caused by late arrivals and the resulting missed material is likely to negatively impact each student's learning experience. The instructor reserves the right to refuse admission to any student who repeatedly arrives late for class or lab. Attendance information is typically collected at the beginning of each class/lab meeting, consequently there is no distinction between absent and late. Furthermore, students may expect random, weekly participation quizzes on covered material and assigned reading. Participation quizzes are generally given at the beginning of class. Only those students who are present, and on time, may participate. Participation quizzes are not eligible for make-up.

If a student is absent more than the number of hours a course meets in a two week period, (10 hours) the faculty may withdraw that student from the course with an "AF" grade any time during the semester. An "AF" grade is calculated in the GPA as an "F". There is no provision in the course calendar for repeating of lectures, labs or demonstrations due to absenteeism.

Make Up Policy:

Not all missed work is eligible for make-up. It is the student's responsibility to inquire about missed work at the first class meeting after returning from an absence. The instructor will determine eligibility and provide an appropriate assignment. Any approved assignment must be completed and turned in as directed. There is no provision for make-up of a midterm exam, final exam, or lab practical exam.

Homework:

Self-study assignments are required. Some are listed in the course calendar, some will be assigned throughout the semester. Chapter end questions assigned per the course calendar are due at the beginning of the first class meeting of the week assigned. Chapter-end questions should include the question number, answer letter as well as the related answer text. Please include the chapter number on your answer sheet.

Scheduled homework assignments are combined into the equivalent of two test grades. Assignments passed in one class late will be accepted at reduced credit. Assignments will not be accepted more than one class late.

Any assignment turned in via e-mail will be accepted provided it is mailed prior to the due date/time.

Rationale:

Climate control systems maintain a comfortable environment for the drive and passage of vehicles. This adds to the safety of the driver. These systems also maintain the proper operating temperature of the vehicle's engine. Servicing the AC system requires a license which is built into this course. Completion of the course will give the student the skill to diagnosis these systems and the license to repair them. Making the student much more valuable to an employer.

Course Description:

The theory and operations of Honda climate control systems including safety, diagnosis, service and repair will be covered. Major areas of study will include: manual and automatic controls for heating and air conditioning systems, diagnosis and repair of failed components and recovery/evacuation and charging of refrigerant systems. There will be an emphasis on safety and refrigerant recovery procedures as well as the proper use of test equipment

Course Competencies:

The student will learn to perform the tasks of a service technician in a safe, clean, neat and ethical manner.

The student will learn the theory of operation of automotive heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems including environmental concerns.

The student will learn proper diagnosis and repair procedures for automotive heating and ventilation systems.

The student will learn the proper diagnosis and repair procedures for Automotive air conditioning systems.

The student will learn to properly diagnose and repair manual heating, Ventilation and air conditioning controls.

The student will learn to properly diagnose and repair automatic climate Control system controls.

The student will learn the proper procedures for the safe handling of refrigerants used in automotive air conditioning systems.

Essential Questions:

What is the most effective way to repair the vehicle?

Cost vs. Time vs. Risk

What is the root cause of the failure you are repairing?

Are there updated parts to address this issue?

Course Expectations:

We understand that sometimes "life happens" and you cannot get to class on time or at all but, all students are expected to attend each class for the full amount of time scheduled. It is an important part of your education and we want you to be successful.

All lectures and labs begin on the hour.

Tardiness: All students will receive 2 "late entrances" to class. On the third time that student will not be allowed into class and will receive a zero for that class. This will result in an absence and be counted towards the attendance policy for the AF grade.

Absences: Any student that will miss a class should notify the instructor by phone or email prior to the beginning of the class. All absences will result in accrued time towards the AF policy. Students are responsible for any make-up work, missed quizzes and exams due to absence. It is the instructor's discretion to allow make-up work, take a quiz or exam.

In this section, you must include your late work policy AND your make up policy unless your department has specific requirements posted below. You should also list other expectations that will help students succeed in your course and allow your classroom to function smoothly.

- There is a large safety portion to the course both personal and environmental. Because of this all proper procedures must be followed. When in doubt, ask.
- As a rule, there is no make-up work. If you are not going to make a class be sure, your homework assignment has been completed. Most assignments will be on Canvas. If it is a paper assignment, include it in the email stating you are going to be absent and you will receive full credit. Quizzes can be made up only if there was an email notifying the instructor of the absence. This must be made up prior to the next meeting of the class. It is the student's responsibility to do this.
- Most homework assignment will be end of chapter questions and will be on Canvas. Quizzes will be based on those homework assignments and giving in class on paper.
- All PowerPoint/class presentations on Canvas for you to review
- Should you have any question or concern you can email me. I normally will return an email within 48 hours.

Grading:

5% -- Homework
10% -- Quizzes
30% -- Lab eval/Task sheets
10% -- Mid-term Exam

Department Policies

Cellphones, laptops, tablets and other electronic equipment should be shut off during class unless previously approved by instructor.

For example: lab tops/tablets are ok if you have purchased an electric copy of the textbook.

Required Tools:

All students are required to possess hand tools per the Required Tool List. Each student is expected to have the tools available for each lab session. The instructor reserves the right to refuse admission to (or dismiss from) lab any student who is not regularly prepared with the required tools. All tools should be at the college no later than the first Monday in October.

Students are expected to attend all their regularly scheduled classes, laboratory periods, and other academic exercises. Should an absence from regularly scheduled academic exercise be unavoidable (beyond a student's control), it will be the student's responsibility to communicate with the professor, preferably beforehand, concerning the absence. Documentation of said absence may be required by the professor.

Students are advised that absence from class, for whatever reason, does not excuse them from meeting course requirements and objectives.

If a student is absent more than six hours (for a four-credit course, the total is eight hours) of class time during the term or semester, the instructor may withdraw the student from class using an AF grade, which means an F will be averaged into the GPA. In addition to absences from class, tardiness and leaving class early also calculate into missed class time. To avoid this AF, if a student cannot continue to attend class for any reason, he/she should obtain a withdrawal slip from the registrar and follow the process to officially withdraw. Students should also understand an AF grade can be assigned by an instructor or an administrator at any time for reasons other than poor grade performance or failure to meet attendance requirements e.g., violation of the Student Code of Conduct, disruptive behavior, etc. Students should refer to the student handbook for additional information about the AF policy.

It is the responsibility of the student to make up any missed class work, homework assignment, quizzes, or tests in accordance with the instructor's make-up policy.

Depending on the instructor's policy, late papers may or may not be accepted for full credit. See this syllabus for policy details.

All assignments must be typewritten, unless otherwise instructed by the teacher. Any work that is not typewritten will not be accepted.

Specific policy details for the above are outlined in this syllabus.

Revised: 12/18/17

College Policies

AF Policy: If a student misses more than the number of hours the course meets during a two-week period (e.g. six hours for a three credit course), the faculty may withdraw a student from the course with an "AF" grade. Please note that absences, tardies, and leaving class early all count towards "missed class time."

Students should also understand an AF grade can be assigned by an instructor or an administrator at any time for reasons other than poor grade performance or failure to meet attendance requirements e.g., violation of the Student Code of Conduct, disruptive behavior, etc.

Please be advised that if the behavior of any student (or students) continually disrupts the learning of his/her classmates, the following steps will be taken 1) verbal warning; 2) meeting with instructor and department chair; 3) referral to Vice President of Academic Affairs and/or removal from the course with AF grade.

An "AF" grade is calculated in the GPA as an "F". Students should refer to the student handbook for additional information about the AF policy.

Canvas: All instructors at NCC will be using Canvas. Canvas is the online learning management system used by instructors and learners at Nashua Community College. Instructors may post syllabi, course related documents and grades in Canvas. Students may be required to submit assignments and/or take assessments through Canvas and/or participate in discussion boards.

College Email System: Nashua Community College has established a College electronic mail ("email") system as a means of the College sending official information to enrolled students, and for students to send communication to their instructors and College personnel. All students registered at NCC will be assigned a College email account/address to be used as the only email address for all email communication: 1) sent to the students from their instructors and from all College personnel; and, 2) sent by the students to their instructors and to all College personnel.

In addition:

- Students should check their College email account regularly to ensure they are staying current with all official communications. Official communication includes, but is not limited to, policy announcements, registration and billing information, schedule changes, emergency notifications and other critical and time sensitive information.
- Students should also check their college email account to be sure that they are current with all email communication from their faculty.
- The student email account/address should be the only e-mail address students use to send email to faculty and College personnel so that student email is recognized and opened.
- This service is provided exclusively to the students of NCC. Accounts are for individual use only, and are not transferable or to be used by any other individual.
- Students using their College email account do so under the policies set forth in the Student Handbook under "Student Computer Conduct Code".

Sensitive Materials Policy: During the semester, in order to cover certain academic topics, there may be occasions to view or discuss material which may not meet the student's own personal definition of appropriateness. At such times, every student has the right to decide not to participate. Every effort will be made by the instructor to notify students in advance of when such sensitive material will be used so that students can make alternative arrangements. Faculty will guide students in the identification of alternate learning opportunities consistent with relevant course objectives so that students opting out of scheduled "sensitive" learning experiences will not be penalized academically in any way. Please note the opportunity to leave the classroom discretely is always available to each student when such sensitive material is being discussed. The student then has the responsibility before the next class meeting to inform the instructor as to the reason for leaving.

Plagiarism Policy: Plagiarism is a serious violation of a student's academic integrity and the trust between a student and his or her teachers. Plagiarism is the act of a person presenting another person's work as if it were his or her own original work. Such acts of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

1. A student submitting as his or her own work an entire essay or other assignment written by another person.

2. A student taking word for word a section or sections of another person's work without proper acknowledgment of the source and that the material is quoted.
3. A student using statistics or other such facts or insights as if these were the result of the student's efforts and thus lacking proper acknowledgment of the original source.
4. The paraphrasing of another person's unique work with no acknowledgment of the original source.
5. Copying another student's work on a quiz or test.

When a student is found to have plagiarized an academic assignment, it will be up to each instructor to determine the penalty. Depending on the severity of the incident, this could range from a warning to a loss of credit for the assignment. In all cases of plagiarism, the student's program coordinator will automatically be notified and the incident will be documented. If any further incidents of plagiarism are reported to the student's program coordinator, additional sanctions will be imposed. These may include notification of the Vice President of Academic Affairs; loss of credit for the course; suspension or dismissal from a department program; academic probation; and/or expulsion from the College.

Credit Hour Guidelines

1. A credit hour shall be the equivalent of one (1) hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction and a minimum of two (2) hours of out-of-class student work each week for 15 or 16 weeks.

- Demonstrate proper engine removal procedures
- Demonstrate proper teardown and cleaning procedures
- Discuss proper engine repair processes
- Apply proper reassembly procedures for engine mechanical parts
- Demonstrate how to safely and efficiently reinstall an engine

Essential Questions:

- What is the most effective way to repair the vehicle?
- Cost vs. Time vs. Risk

- With this class the jobs assigned for the lab tend to last multiple labs if not the entire semester. Time run out quickly. It is expected the students use their lab time efficiently. This means the student should do research on parts, procedure, special tool etc outside of lab time. This will help to avoid wasting a lab/week because a part or tool was not on hand when needed.

Please note the opportunity to leave the classroom discretely is always available to each student when such sensitive material is being discussed. The student then has the responsibility before the next class meeting to inform the instructor as to the reason for leaving.

Plagiarism Policy: Plagiarism is a serious violation of a student's academic integrity and the trust between a student and his or her teachers. Plagiarism is the act of a person presenting another person's work as if it were his or her own original work. Such acts of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

1. A student submitting as his or her own work an entire essay or other assignment written by another person.
2. A student taking word for word a section or sections of another person's work without proper acknowledgment of the source and that the material is quoted.
3. A student using statistics or other such facts or insights as if these were the result of the student's efforts and thus lacking proper acknowledgment of the original source.
4. The paraphrasing of another person's unique work with no acknowledgment of the original source.
5. Copying another student's work on a quiz or test.

When a student is found to have plagiarized an academic assignment, it will be up to each instructor to determine the penalty. Depending on the severity of the incident, this could range from a warning to a loss of credit for the assignment. In all cases of plagiarism, the student's advisor will be notified and the incident will be documented. If any further incidents of plagiarism are reported to the student's advisor, additional sanctions will be imposed. These may include notification of the Vice President of Academic Affairs; loss of credit for the course; suspension or dismissal from a department program; academic probation; and/or expulsion from the College.
