WHAT IS FINANCIAL AID (FAFSA)?

Financial aid helps students and their families pay for college expenses, both direct (charged to your college student account including tuition, fees, and on campus room and board) and indirect (including, but not limited to books, supplies, and transportation to/from college). There are several types of financial aid including grants, scholarships, loans and work study and financial aid awards may include a combination of the various types of aid.

Grants: no repayment necessary; usually based on need

Scholarships: typically no repayment necessary; based on merit and/or need

Loans: repayment is required; loan type is based on need

Federal Work Study: work for an hourly rate; based on need

Nonresident	$490.00
Comprehensive Fee (per credit)	$23.00

REFUND POLICY

Students who officially withdraw from the College or an individual course by the end of the fourteenth (14th) calendar day of the semester will receive a 100% refund of tuition, less-nonrefundable fees. Classes that meet in a shorter format than the traditional semester will have 7 calendar days from the designated start of the alternative semester to withdraw for a full refund. If the seventh (7th) or fourteenth (14) calendar day falls on a weekend or holiday, the drop refund date will be the first business day following the holiday or weekend. Exception: students in courses that meet for two weeks or fewer must drop by the end of the first day of the class in order to get a 100% refund. All Federal Title IV funds (i.e. Pell, SEOG, Perkins Loans, Stafford Loans) are returned to the federal programs according to the rules and regulations mandated by the Department of Education. All refunds require that students complete an official withdrawal form. In accordance with Federal regulations, refunds for an amount less than $1.00 ($0.99 or less) will be forfeited.
