These applications were the basis for the first process of determining student need and these students received priority in the awarding of funds. On June 9, 2020, 146 students who met the above criteria and answered yes to qualifying expense on the application were awarded $1,800.00.

A secondary process identified Pell eligible who met the above criteria; these students were determined by NCC to have been affected by the disruption of campus operations due to coronavirus. The secondary process also identified students who completed a survey or became eligible after the priority deadline. On June 17, 2020, the following groups received funding:

- Late application/late eligibility students:
 - 1 non-Pell eligible student received $500.00
 - 6 Pell eligible students received $1,100.00
- Non-application students:
 - 267 non-Pell eligible students received $125.00
 - 319 Pell eligible students received $275.00

A third process will award the remaining amount of $10,179 through an application requiring students to meet the above criteria.

HOW WILL/DID STUDENTS RECEIVE THEIR FUNDS?

Funds were posted directly to student accounts through the Bursar’s Office the weeks of June 10, 2020 and June 17, 2020.
