Benefits of a Human Services Degree

The Human Services degree program prepares students to work with individuals who are consumers of the human services delivery system, providing them with direct services and linking them with other community services and resources. Students will study human development, case management and intervention, assessment and program planning, and individual, interpersonal, and group dynamics.

Students will learn direct services theory and techniques to develop problem solving and critical thinking skills. Upon completion of the program, students will be prepared for employment in a variety of human services agencies.

Additionally, graduates wishing to continue their studies beyond NCC can benefit from transfer agreements with Granite State College, Rivier University, and Springfield College of Human Services.

Estimated cost of program Tuition and *fees only:

- In-State $15,544
- NE Regional $20,349
- Out-of-State $30,870

Register

Register for all of the courses recommended each semester. Take at least 14-16 credits each semester to graduate in two years. A higher percentage of students graduate when they complete 30+ credits within their first year. (Research by Complete College of America)
