

Working with administration and other departments

It is expected that the Program Coordinator will work collaboratively with the college administration, staff, and fellow faculty to solve problems that arise and implement college strategic initiatives.