

Standard 5.3 E – Graduate Survey results

When the results of the graduate survey are received, they are examined and potential changes are discussed amongst faculty and the advisory committee. When it is agreed that changes need to be made the changes are then brought to the advisory committee and finally the curriculum committee to make the necessary changes.